Heard advocates.

2. By our order dated 22.6.2004 we called for the information about the procedure followed by the Government Medical Stores, Mumbai Central for (i) coding of samples to be sent to the laboratory for testing, (ii) the procedure regarding sending samples to the National Laboratories or the Government approved testing laboratories and (iii)

the procedure for testing in the in-house laboratory. Pursuant to our order the Asst Director General (M.S) Government Medical Stores,Mumbai Central, Mumbai has filed a detailed affidavit furnishing all the details about the procedure followed by the Stores and the relevant data for last three months is also annexed to the affidavit of the Asst Director General.

3. We are satisfied that all the guidelines /directions and instructions as issued by the Government of India from time to time are adhered to and followed by the Medical Stores Depot, Mumbai. Therefore no interference is warranted under Art 226 .

Petition is disposed of accordingly.
